MR. BRYAN may not be a villain, but he's merely a vaudevillian.

In his battle with FISH, HARRIMAN now realizes that he didn't tackle a sucker.

WHAT with dodging automobiles and watching for balloons the rubbernecks are kept pretty busy these Indian summer days.

THE COREYS—W. ELLIS and his MABELLE—are going to spend the winter in New York. The Pittsburghers should tender them a vote of thanks.

THEY virtually claim that a Democrat, who has stolen a nomination and is seeking election, ought to be permitted to do such things without challenge or criticism.—General Basil W. Duke, ex-Confederate.

WHEN a man asks me to accept this stuff because it is styled Democracy, I feel very much as I would if he would furnish me a bottle of carbolic acid, and expect me to give it to a sick baby because it was labeled "Winslow's soothing syrup."—General Basil W. Duke, ex-Confederate.

THE HON. ALFRED OWSLEY STANLEY, formerly of the county of Fleming, talks like a long-haired and bewhiskered anarchist. And he hasn't got enough hair on his head or on his face to wad a popgun. The Hon. OWSLEY should calm his troubled brow. He hasn't the entire job of regulating the universe. It's the Tobacco Trust he thinks he's after. He is taking himself too seriously, anyhow.

Postmaster W. H. Harrison and wife of Flemingsburg are visiting in Washington City and attending the Postmaster's Convention.

F. C. Greene, Commonwealth's Attorney in Grant county has been petitioned to resign on account of his failure to properly prosecute the violators of the prohibition law of that county.

The Maysville Man always gets there. The latest to whom it is known that new honors have fallen is Mr. Charles C. Kirk, long a resident of the Hoosier State, who is now Cashier of the Bank at Lyons, Ind. Mr. Kirk's friends in his old Kentucky Home—and they are legion—are glad to hear of his being one of the big chiefs in the banking concern.

THE Democratic machine is lawless and unscrupulous from core to skin, and is as vicious, although, perhaps not as reckless as ever.—General Basil W. Duke, ex-Confederate.

THE Democrats claim that WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN's first tour through Kentucky made the party 10,000 votes. BILLY's second tour will make another 10,000 votes, ten tours would make 100,000 votes, and so on. Now, how many tours would it require to make it unanimous?

MANAGER A. I. VORYS of Columbus, who is engineering the Taft campaign, after a conference with prominent Republicans at Washington, says: "Information from all over the country indicates that the situation, as viewed from the Taft standpoint, is very encouraging. Secretary TAFT will have a solid and enthusiastic delegation from Ohio." Mr. VORYS added: "It doesn't make any difference to Secretary TAFT's interests what time the committee meets or when or where the convention is held."

AN AVERTED TRAGEDY.

He loved the maiden, how ardently none knew but himself and the landlady's cat, whom he had told all about it.

At last came his opportunity. They were alone together. Timidly he seated himself on the sofa by her side, and still more timidly he stretched forth his arm and took her lily-white hand in his.

"Clotilda," he breathed, "I love you! May I call you Clotilda?"

"Herbert Hinks," she said, "release my hand!"

"Answer me first," he demanded, his face hardening, and the words hissing through his gold-filled teeth.

"Let go my hand!" the maiden repeated.

"No, cruel girl," he muttered. "Your beauty has made me desperate. I will have an answer! Why should I release your hand?"

"Because," she replied, "my back hair's coming down and I want to fix it."

The cloud that threatened his happiness now vanished into air, and soon the wedding bells will peal forth.

PILES

"I have suffered with piles for thirty-six years. One year ago last April I began taking Cascarets for constipation. In the course of a week I noticed weeks they did not trouble me at all. Cascarets have done wonders for me. I am entirely cured and feel like a new man." George Snyder, Napoleon, O.

ANNUAL SALE, TEN MILLION BOXES

Carrie Nation, the saloon smasher, arrived at Mt. Sterling Tuesday evening and within forty-five minutes was placed in Jail. She asked Jailor Wilson for use of the Courthouse and when he refused, she engaged in a war of words and called the officer a "drunken bum." She was arrested and jailed, but shortly after released, and proceeded at once to deliver her lecture, being granted the use of the Courthouse.

The late Miss Lorena Gilbert was insured with Colonel Rosenham for $120.

BADLY SCALDED

Little Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Lloyd Painfully Burned

Dover News.

Evelyn, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Lloyd, was badly scalded Tuesday at noon at the home of her parents near Germantown. She was in the kitchen with her mother who in passing the range accidentally knocked a pot of boiling coffee over.

The contents struck the little girl and scalded her right leg from about half way between the hip and knee down.

When the stocking was removed the skin came off with it, showing the scald to have been severe. The patient suffered considerably.

What to Do About Colds

The best thing to do is not to have them if they can possibly be avoided. Colds are a discomfort and a serious danger. Many people have not as yet fully realized that colds can now be usually prevented if treated in time and be cured quickly after they do come. The remedy to use is

CHENOWETH'S COLD CURE.

This remedy stops starting colds if taken in time. It cures fresh colds in 24 hours and settled colds in half the usual time. It can be depended upon to do this practically every time. If it ever fails we refund the money.

BADLY INJURED

On Barb Wire Fence Is a Son of the Late W. L. Savage

Yesterday at Fernleaf, Albert Savage, 15, son of Mrs. W. L. Savage, and of the man murdered by Chester Savage, now in the Maysville Jail, was very seriously injured. While climbing over a barb wire fence on the farm, he fell and was caught on the leg by a rusty barb and a great gash torn in his limb. Dr. Dimmitt was called and gave him prompt surgical attention which no doubt saved his life.

The Savage family have rented property in Maysville and will soon take up their residence here.

Young Savage was working in the gas pipe surveying corps when he was injured.

THE HAZY DAYS OF GOLDEN AUTUMN.

For those of us who have passed the zenith and are serenely descending the Western slope of time, there is nothing so calculated to soothe the tingling nerve or rest the tired brain, as a walk or drive through the country lanes and fields these glorious autumn days when—

"The lands are lit
With all the autumn blaze of goldenrod;
And everywhere the purple asters nod
And bend and wave and flit."

The beauty of the fields, the woods, the hills is greater than usual this splendid autumn after an unusually wet summer. The writer recently drove far into the country, where beauty reigned supreme and silence, but for bird songs. We came upon a scene far out toward the Springs that was like magic in its weird beauty—a mountain with cliffs of yellow rock showing above a heavy belt of green foliage. At the base of the mountain was a large knoll, shaped like an inverted bowl. From this knoll a slight elevation or ridge extended with a gradual slope to the valley. On either side of the elevation extended a wide field, which was covered from end to end with a solid mass of goldenrod, while the knoll was covered with a tall plant that had a purple, wavy top—something like pampas plumes, but for color. We stopped our horse to look, and kept on looking. In every direction were mountains, but here in this lovely valley was only silence and peace. A long time we enjoyed the restful scene, 'til, warned by lengthening shadows, we gathered up the reins, then turned for a last fond look at the wide stretch of field that was a veritable cloth of gold spread about the knoll; that was indeed a throne, and the tall, swaying, plummy plant was that grandest of all wild blooms—the Queen of the Meadow.
